

RANCHO SPRING FESTIVAL: A VICTORIAN AFFAIR

Seurat, Sunday in the Park, c. 1884

SUNDAY, MAY 21, 2006
12:30-4:30 P.M.

$5.00 ADULTS/$3.00 CHILDREN (3 AND UNDER - FREE!)

Victorian finery encouraged!

EVENTS

Cottonwood String Band
An exuberant musical concoction that will have you dancing on the grass!

Outdoor Adventures
Maypole dance, fly fishing, stilts, period crafts and unique games for boys & girls.

Fashion Show
Discover popular clothing trends of proper ladies and gents.

Adobe House Tours
Costumed docents bring history to life.

Organ Grinder
Street musician & capuchin monkey popular in U.S. from 1850-1950.

“Doctor Malatesta: Frontier Phrenologist”
The art of reading your characteristics by the bumps on your head.

“Courting Penelope” by RLC Players
Hilarious skits about 1800s courting customs.

Fortuneteller & Magician
Dare to venture into the other realms!

Rancho Los Cerritos Historic Site • 4600 Virginia Road, Long Beach
(562) 570-1755 • www.rancholoscerritos.org

Presented by Friends of Rancho Los Cerritos and Rancho Los Cerritos Historic Site, Department of Parks, Recreation and Marine, City of Long Beach. This information is available in alternate format.
For special accommodations, please call at least 48 hours in advance.