Pledge Form

For individuals, planned giving is an important means to transform personal wealth into philanthropy for the benefit of charitable causes and local nonprofits. For nonprofits, planned giving helps ensure the long-term success of an organization, and gifts can often be unrestricted in how they are used.
A planned gift can be transformative!

- Yes, I qualify to become a member of the Adobe Heritage Society, as I have listed the Rancho among the charities who will benefit from my estate planning.
